

Suspension of production due to military operations

Current report no. 3/2022

Dated February 24, 2022

The Management Board of Coal Energy would like to inform that because of the entry of troops of the Russian Federation into Ukraine today we have stopped mining operations at our mines in order not to put our employees at risk. Currently mines are working on pumping out water and maintaining systems. The Management Board will inform the relevant supervisory authorities and investors about development of this situation.
